TAM O' SHANTER INN.
Odette
AYR HIGH ST. LOOKING NORTH

LL6440

TUCK'S POST CARD.

CARTE POSTALE. POSTKARTE.

High Street is the principal street in the town of Ayr. It contains a number of interesting buildings, including the Wallace Tower, 130 feet high, which is said to occupy the site of an old house where Wallace was imprisoned, and the "Tam o' Shanter Inn"—shown on the right side of the picture—a modest hostelry, the resort of "Tam," and from where he started on his famous ride.

(For Address Only.)

Printed in England.

C▽PA 12.9

Raphael Tuck & Sons' "OILETTE" [Regd.] Postcard 7417. "AYR."
ART PUBLISHERS TO THEIR MAJESTIES THE KING & QUEEN.